

Marina Pomales, B.A.

Marina Pomales is a Fiscal Administrative Officer for the State of Connecticut Department of Children and Families (DCF) since 1998. Her job duties require her to ensure timely and accurate payment of Residential Treatment services and Community Housing Apartment Program services provided to Connecticut youth who are under the care of the department.

Marina began working for the State of Connecticut in 1988. She worked for the Treasury Department as an Investment Technician in the Cash Management Division, and in the Business Office of the Department of Public Health.

Marina has a BA in European History and a Minor in Renaissance & Reformation Studies from Trinity College, in Hartford, CT. She graduated in 1994, and was named a member of the Pi Gamma Mu Honor Society in the Social Sciences. She plans to attend the University of Connecticut to obtain an MBA.

Marina has done volunteer work with Literacy Volunteers, the Democratic Party, and Connecticut Public Radio. At work, she has joined diversity committees and has assisted in the planning of events for Black History Month & Hispanic Heritage Month.

Marina enjoys cooking, reading, working out, music, and loves spending as much time as possible with her friends.
